“ Adam put the "run" in mail runs at the office, maintained his "pretty boy" status, had more Olympic medals than Michael Phelps, was an avid PS4 gamer and had better dance moves than any of us combined. He cared deeply for his "ladies", his amazing family and life-long friends. Adam lived for surprises, all of which he knew every detail of before the event itself. He was a friend, a devoted family member, an exemplary employee, and a true Philadelphian- cheering for all of our underdog Philly sports teams, complete with a fondness for hoagies and Pepsi. His basketball skills with Special Olympics and Carousel House were only eclipsed by his ability to charm everyone he encountered.

I will always remember the weekly "Coffee Talks" with your impromptu dance sessions (with breaks of course) and the sheer excitement you had with each approaching surprise or request for Wildwood vacations and Phillies' games. You were the life of every party- whether it was a Gala, SPIN Live, Employment Banquet, Summer Bash, Holiday Party, Carousel dance, birthday or basement DJ Hotsauce parties. You lived your "dash" to the fullest and made a lasting impact on so many over the years.

With love and support, Jen Williams (SPIN)

“ I am so lucky to have been a part of Adam's life for the past 9 years. He could make me smile instantly. Some of my favorite times are when we would play basketball. He would have a huge smile on his face when he made a shot and his nickname on the court was Larry Bird. He was always polite especially to the ladies. He was great at playing UNO and enjoyed beating me at the game so much ! He will truly be missed.

My deepest Condolences
