

Anne Gallagher

February 12, 2020

Anne (Cahill) Gallagher, aged 87, died peacefully, surrounded by family, on February 12, 2020 at St. Joseph's Villa. Anne was a long-time resident of the Roxborough area of Philadelphia and previously resided at Bethlehem Village apartments in Flourtown for several years.

Anne was the proud and most extraordinary mother to 8 children: Kate, Erin (Joe) Capriotti, Gerianne (John) McBrearty, Colleen (David) Maier, Jeanmarie (Kevin) Kennedy, Maureen (Ed) Bodkin, and Kevin (Jodie). Anne's beloved son, Brian (Trish), preceded her in death in November 2018. She was also predeceased by seven siblings Martin, Billy, Thomas, Daniel, Jack, Patricia, and Elizabeth.

Anne was the treasured "Grannie Annie" to her 14 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren, and Aunt Anne to several nieces and nephews. She was blessed to have had life-long friendships with many kind and wonderful women.

Anne was a strong and courageous woman and an inspiration to not only her family but to many others. She had an infectious sense of humor, blue eyes that sparkled with every laugh, and an incredibly resilient spirit.

Anne had a strong faith as a life-long Catholic. She was a member of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish in the Andorra section of Philadelphia for more than 40 years. She continued to participate in Mass after moving to the Village and then the Villa.

The family would like to thank the wonderful and dedicated staff and volunteers at St. Joseph's Villa where Anne lived for the past six years.

Anne loved flowers but she loved making a difference in people's lives more. Therefore, in lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Anne's memory to Project Home, where Anne was one of the earliest volunteers and a continuous donor. <https://projecthome.org/donate>, 1515 Fairmount Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19130
