“ Carl. We had our good and bad times but you always came back around. But you always put your hand out to tell me to behave. I respect you and who you were. You weren't so tough because your heart was kind . I'm Happy my children were able to see you weren't that bad at all. Loved our last visit. Thanks for inviting me. You will be missed by us ! RIP SIR!!

Love, Nick, Yvonne, Valerie, Kevin, Steven, Chloe.

“ Crusty, grumpy... difficult at times but a softie underneath it all. I think when we are wounded or scared often we put up a wall or try to be what we think is “strong” but beneath it all were just misunderstood and trying to be heard. Thank you for doing your best with mom these last 14 years. I can't imagine “losing” my spouse even though they are still sitting right next to me. Thank you Uncle Dave for guiding him over and being with him these final days. Love you dad and I'll see you in the other side.- missy

“ Carl was my brother-in-law for 54 years. He always like to act tuff but I know he had a kind sole which he showed several times to me. He will be missed but to know he is at peace is all we all can ask. RIP, we love you and will miss you. LOL Linda
