

Devitalin Leatherburry

August 13, 2019

Devitalin Leatherburry, of Philadelphia, passed away peacefully in her home on August 13th, 2019.

She was the daughter of the late Cora Denny and the late Jose Lopez born July 22, 1958. One brother Vernon Booker preceded her in death.

Devita received her education in the Philadelphia School System.

She worked for many years at the Reliance Insurance Company.

Known for her warm smile, words of wisdom and her strong Christian faith she touched many lives. Her favorite pastime was watching television. Law and Order: SVU, Blue Bloods, and Criminal Minds were among some of her favorite shows.

Devita, enjoyed staying at home with her family. Her most important role, was that of mother to her 3 children and grandson.

She will be missed but leaves to cherish her memory a legacy for her daughter Tyvita L. Henson, 2 sons, Isa M. Martin and Wazir Martin, her grandson Isa N. Martin, one brother Kenneth Booker along with a host of nieces and nephews other family and friends.

“ I remember one mother's day I was in the kitchen cooking, I heard someone yelling for help. I went to the back door and I knew it was Devita. So I ran to the front door to see if anyone was out there. There was Tyrone standing in their door, smoking his cigarette while she was yelling for help. I asked him "don't you hear her yelling?" And he says "today's mother's day. I told her to sit her azz down and she wouldn't. So I hog tied her and sat her on the couch. That way, she can't work anything but her mouth." Devita was always a good friend, even after I moved off the block. I miss my good girlfriend and our conversations. God bless your soul Devita, fly high with the angels.

“ To Devitalin's Children: Isa, Waz, Tyvita, I am praying for your comfort and peace during this difficult time.

When I met your Mother, she was twenty-two and I was fifteen. My finest memories are: that she was a very beautiful young woman; smart; a hard worker that had enjoyed working with her Dad; and she loved music. She even turned me on to 'Soft Rock.' One of her favorite songs was "I'd Really Love to See You Tonight." We spent hours listening to music; doing hair; shopping; and going to concerts. We even saw the Sugar hill Gang perform Rapper's Delight. Good memories!!!!

May God restore joy to you all! Love Aunt Paula

“ What a beautiful soul you was, Heaven has gain' an Angel! Ms. Devita words can't explain how I feel right about now, but I learned alot from you, words of wisdom, life's lessons, and seeing you be a devoted Christian woman. I listen closely to everything you shared with me. You was such a caring, loving, sweet Woman of God. We shared so much within a year and a half, encouraging each other. How much you love your duddie, children, family, friends & church family.. You was like family to me, you made me feel that way.. Thank you for that. You made every day special. I will miss your hugs, and most of all, that beautiful smile of yours. You will truly be missed. Till we meet again, I will always love you. Rest well with the Lord
