“ I love and miss you so much Grams :(I keep playing every memory of the times when I was younger and you worked at the bar Cuckoo's Nest on 24th street and I would ride my skateboard there just to come see you, you used to make me the best sherry temples and give me quarters to play pool with. Grams I'm so sorry that I didn't get the chance to make you proud and make the best life that you always told me I could do. I love you and will see you when Heaven calls us home. Watch over us all grams we need you still

“ To the most beautiful loving adoring sister a person could hope for. Life will never be the same without my best friend, confidant and cohort in life. You are and will always be my warrior princess. You were so strong and brave much more so than I would have been. You handled this with the grace and beauty that you have carried all of your life. There never has been nor, will there ever be another like you. You my sister were in a class all by yourself. You were a rock star and a shining glimmer of pride and virtue that those of us can only hope to aspire to. Through everything that life threw your way you handled it like a champ and never missed a beat in doing things your way. You will be missed every second of every day. I love you Ganc fly free my beautiful butterfly. Don't forget to come sit beside me and watch 90 day so we can make fun of and curse at the idiocy of the characters. I miss you so very very much. Love you now always and forever Denise
