“ To my loving wife Lori. You have have passed on from this earthly plain but I know we'll be together again in Heaven. Your tender nature and gracious heart have always endeared me. You have always given me strength and hope when I could find none. I will miss you dearly. I am eternally grateful for the time God has given us. We have shared many special moments together and they will forever be in my heart. With Love, your humble husband Chas.

“ Ohh sweet friend of my youth , and LP Baptist Church days: always, always with a smile on your face and kindness in your heart!
Praying for Peace for you and yours...we will all hold tight to our memories of you.
I wish that I did not live so far away in Atlanta , that I could be in Penna for, what shall be a sweet service in celebration of your life.... Jill Keirse Waldon
