“ My Mom. What can I possibly say that could truly express my love for her? She was my closest Allie and best friend. She was always there when I needed her most. I put her thru some doozies. And, boy oh boy, was she honest with her opinion! She told it like it was whether you liked it or not! My heart is breaking knowing I'll never see those big, brown, beautiful eyes again. I always had a hard time saying goodbye to her, as my family knows. I would just go back for one more kiss which turned into twenty kisses and hugs! Even before she was ill. It was a ritual. One I will never regret. I find so much comfort knowing she is now reunited with her beloved Sister, my Sweet Aunt Gerri. She missed her greatly through the years. She is also with her parents, my Grandmom, Kate the Great and Grand pop Cipp. Mom, I'm going to be lost without you and I have no idea how life will go on... Goodnight and God bless. Don't forget I love you...

“ So sorry Ray and Jackie to hear about your mom. Growing up on O Street was a pleasure knowing your mom. I lost my mom suddenly in 2013. It is hard every day without her. Prayers for your family.
