“ Regina and I are deeply saddened that our Pam has passed away. We feel like we've lost a sister, because that's what she was to us. When I think of Pam, I think of how very nurturing she was. When I would walk into any family function, I would see Pam in the kitchen waiting on people, and I would say, "Hello, Miz Pamela!" "Hi, Miss Mil", she would reply. Then, the very next words out of her mouth would be, "Cuppa tea, Miss Mil?" and off she would go to make me one. Gosh, I'm going to miss Pam so much! Another memory I'd like to share about Pam (there are so many!), is one I have of the time my Dad was in the hospital. Well, one day I arrived in his hospital room, and what do I see? There's Pam, standing over my Dad, giving him a shoulder rub. She didn't tell me, or anyone else that she was coming up to visit - she was just there. That was Pam. As everyone has been saying, Pam always did put everyone else first. And the one person she was totally and absolutely dedicated to, was you, Kevin. And your Mom was so very proud of you! Always keeping everyone up-to-date on what you were doing, your jobs, etc., and how much everyone liked you at those jobs. And she loved you so very much! Yes, Jen. Pam was goofy, and funny, and child-like, and that's what made her so loveable! Gosh! How she made us all laugh with her goings-on! And what you saw is exactly what you got. And the funny thing was - Pam didn't know she WAS funny. She had no filters and wasn't embarrassed by anything she told you. Pam was totally unpretentious. There were no airs about her whatsoever. She was truly an authentic person. And Liam, I remember when your Aunt Pam was helping your mom out with you when you were a baby. She would lovingly call you "Boo Boo". Well, there will only ever be one Pam. And we thank you, Dear Friend for having been a true blessing in our lives. Until we meet again, we will only say we miss you, and we love you, very much. And Kevin, know that we will always be here for you. Love you lots! Aunt Mil and Aunt Regina

“ When I think of Aunt Pam I think of the time that Gigi was in a wheelchair and Aunt Pam let go of the wheelchair and Gigi went flying down the hill at Longwood Garden's. I also think of the time that her and my mom held a baby pool on top of the car to get it home. She would also say "where's Liam I don't see him". I also remember when we were at a wedding and we danced together. I also remember the time all three of us went down to Ocean City and we didn't have a lot of money and all we ate was peanut butter and jelly sandwich's and spent all the money we did have on rides and I had the best time of my life. But most of all I remember how much she loved and cared about everyone.

“ I met Pam 25 years ago at Paley Daycare where Kevin and my kids went. The boys played Tball and sports together and Pam and I got to be good friends. Pam's Kevin was her world as well as her family always came first. What a fun loving soul she was. Rest In Peace Pam. You will be missed and pray you are at peace. Love you!

“ So sad that Pams life was cut short . My memories are 30 years full. Met Pam at Paley daycare,where our children went as we worked. Through the years our children became best friends & so did we. Kevin called me his 2nd Mom & considered my sons Branden & Billy his brothers.
I promise you Pam I will remain mom #2, because you will always be #1
God rest your soul

“ Growing up, we had a picture perfect childhood. Surrounded by so many loved ones and family gatherings. I'm sure it wasn't perfect, but as a child it felt perfect. Aunt Pam was a major reason for this. She was goofy and funny and energetic. She was one of the kids. When I think of Aunt Pam, I am instantly brought back in time to my parents backyard in NJ, sitting with her at the picnic table. It really is the little things that stay with us for a lifetime. She made an amazing potato salad. She loved all things pink. She sent a card for every single holiday. She loved pictures. She loved her family. She did anything for anyone. I am so appreciative of all the times we shared, specifically in my early childhood and then again as she helped me so much when Liam was born. Aunt Pam helped me get through some of the scariest times in my life and I will forever be grateful to her. We love you and we are here for you, Kevin. Hugs
