“ We spent an afternoon with Bob sampling the wedding menu for my dear friends Xenia & Morgan...his gift of gab and practical insights made for quite a lovely experience...Another memory is Burdick moving day...Bob pitched in rather than supervising from the sidelines! A kind & generous soul is now resting peacefully...many thoughts & prayers xoxo

“ I met Bob only once. However, from his family I came to I understand that we share a passion for nutrition and concocting health building juices and soups. In other words I feel that Bob was a kindred spirit. Now that he has fallen asleep in the Lord, may he rest in peace.
