“ Bob and I met as teens through a mutual friend. He was so sincere and easy-going, we instantly connected via many common interests—sports being one that stands out the most: Playing softball (still can see his grand slam sailing over my head in leftfield at L. South Elementary); Bob randomly calling (pre-texting) me with a baseball trivia question; or the always generous Bob treating me to front row at Sixers-Bucks and Game 5 of the 1983 World Series (Phils lost but it was an amazing experience). I even briefly worked for Bob’s cleaning service (he was a patient boss). As often times happens, we drifted apart due to family and work commitments, but I was delighted when he accepted an invitation to our Christmas party a decade ago. Bob, always full of surprises, didn’t disappoint, showing up in a black Mercedes. I wish we had spent more time together that night and over the past 25 years. RIP/Save a seat for me at Carmine’s.

“ Bob was a wonderful person he was the type of man who went out of his way for others, he was kind, generous and always had a smile on his face. I knew him to be a very hard worker who would do anything for his family, especially for his daughter Melissa.. He loved to joke around with her and could always make her smile. He loved animals and his dog Toby was his best buddy. They could often be found snuggled up on the couch together. Bob will be missed by all and heaven will certainly have a new angel. My thoughts and prayers are with his family during this difficult time.
