“ After Dorshan passed away, I promised her that I would always take care of her two men!!! I can honestly say that I did my best, And from that point forward we were the Three Musketeers!!! No matter who tried to come in between us, no one ever was able to because You made it known How much you loved your son And made it known how much You thought of me as your daughter!!! Not even an hour before you passed away, You told me how much I meant to you and how much you appreciated all I did for you. And I told you that you didn't need to thank me. That's how much I loved you and I am glad to know that we both understood how much we went to each other Literally an hour before you passed away. Then you called my phone and told me to tell Steve and how much she loved him and how much he meant to you.... Live always be grateful for that because we knew that when you Passed away. We did everything we could to keep you with us, But you had already told us you're earlier than night how much you missed your wife and wanted to be with her. As much as we needed you here with us still, we have come to understand that you fought for so long for Just the Two of Us!!! We know you were ready to go right along with her and only stayed this long to be with us. We are so grateful that you are no longer in any pain. And although selfishly we wish you were here with us, To guide us and just spend time with us, and prepare us to go on, on our own!!! We Are thankful that you passed away In the blink of an eye and didn't have a chance to be in pain. It brought Steve and myself great comfort to see you after you passed away, with the smile on your face as if you had just seen Dorshan again, Which we know is exactly what happened!!! I humbly ask you and Dorshan To watch over your son and make sure that he is okay. He really is lost with it up to you. Although I will always be here for him Oh, it's not the same. That's him having his parents here with him. . I am so grateful that Steve and I met at such a young age so that I was able to get to know you and Dorshan As well as I was able to. You were basically my second parents!!! I promise to always look out for Stephen, first and foremost, but I don't know if that will be enough. You've really is. Right now without either of you here for him. He feels like he is left alone in this world. Please help him to realize who really is there for him. And cares about him. . And help never realize those who are only there When it's convenient. We went through this entire thing together and by ourselves and luckily it brought us closer than ever, together!!! I promise to always stand by your son's Side and make sure That is Able to deal with this pain and grief and still continue to go on....
