Comments

“ Although Steve and I didn't spend as much time with Steve over the years as we would have liked, we have always felt immensely proud of his spirit, love of life, how he created a great life, beautiful family, and obviously many, many friends. He was a giant in stature, and heart. We will miss him greatly. He is gone from view, but not from our hearts and minds. We will always remember him.

“ He was one of those high school classmates who was larger than life. Athletic, funny, popular and just a good all-around guy...the kind they make movies about.

“ Bernie, I am so sorry to hear about Steve's death. I remember him fondly as a great man. When we worked together, he was always there for me when I needed his help. He would say "I've got broad shoulders, I've got this". His passing will leave a big hole in your family and your hearts.

Rest in peace Steve, you have given so much to those you have known.

“ My deepest condolences to the Wasserleben family
I have umpired in Bucks County for over 30 years and have known Wass from several different leagues and mostly from the Wed night Manechoor league for almost 15 years.
Wass was a great athlete and a great person. I never saw anyone hit the ball as hard and far as Wass did. I know he loved the sport of modified softball. I will always remember his "put a glove on that glove". " You can purchase my book on how to play defense." The league even put in the Wass rule as courtesy runners had to stay on first base after getting a hit and being substituted for.

I know he lived a full life and loved his family and his fellow teammates and competitors. His teammates and competitors loved Wass back.
Wass will be sorely missed by us all. Show them in heaven how to hit that ball

“ The past 6 years of working with Steve did not reveal much about who he was in life but the little it did reveal. His love for family and golf, I am grateful to have gotten to know. Not only am I grateful but my family benefited from him being a person who worked with great understanding for others from his position of authority (Family came first!). He also had a knack for making a bad situation better by talking you thru the why. Or delivering one of his always on time statements, "Better you than me" he'd say, just to bust your stones. The small things that would make you bend over backwards for the guy. Steve played a vital role in one of the toughest positions at Patrick Kelly drums. I know we as drivers were not easy to manage, but you managed to make it look easy and for that you will be sorely missed!!

Rest in peace big guy,
love the Ramos family.
God Bless.

“ It's difficult to put into words the disbelief and sheer shock. I can remember being young and watching Steve walk into the room, laughing and carrying on. At that age, there wasn't many who were much larger than Uncle Steve, aside from my dad, in both stature and in character. He will be missed and remembered!

“ There was only one WASS...great softball memories...Won a Championship and lost a sponsor in one night at the Academy...CLASSIC WASS! RIP “ Playing softball will never be the same. He was a legend in many leagues. Always came up with the big hit and some of the best one liners you would ever hear.

“ Wass was truly a unique individual. I had the pleasure of being his teammate on WCU Baseball team and we lived in the WCU baseball house along with many wonderful teammates and friends who we still communicate with to this day. Wass always demonstrated a sincere concern for my being unemployed. It was Wass who recommended me to his buddy Mark Kasper COO of AERC who hired me as his VP of Sales. Even though I hadn't seen or talked to Wass much since college he went out of his way to help me. I am forever grateful to him. Back in the baseball house at WCU...it was Wass who got me out of my broken heart depression from a former girlfriend who broke up with me by trashing my Barry Manilow albums that I used to just sit in my room and listen to instead of going out with my teammates and friends and enjoying the college experience! His sense of humor and sarcasm was wonderful...his "I don't give a f#%" attitude was refreshing and I just spoke to him just before Labor Day as he called to see how I was doing with my new job. He called me as he was sitting on the beach in Bethany Beach DE. I focused our conversation on his health and in his typical way...he said Sil, Im sitting on the beach drinking a F%#% beer!!! And he laughed that awesome laugh he had that made me crack up! He really cared about his friends. RIP "Dr. Foul"...I will miss you. Steve Silicato
