

Vincent Joseph Joyce

February 17, 2019

Vincent Joseph Joyce, of Eagleville, passed away peacefully on February 17th, 2019 at the age of 56. Vince is survived by his loving wife, Cynthia Dorman; his son and daughter-in law, Justin and Shauna, and his grandsons, Alexander Joyce, Adam (A.J.) Phillips, and Gavin Phillips. He is also survived by his siblings: Jennifer Joyce, Susan Kvestich Stathakes, and James (Lisa) Joyce. Vince's nieces and nephews include: Christina Marie (James Victor) Causland-Waters III, Anna Stathakes, Delaney Joyce, and J. Nolan Joyce.

Vincent Joseph (Vince) Joyce was a devoted husband, father, brother, uncle and friend. As a master carpenter, Vince worked with his hands for over 30 years; he built exceptional homes and took great pride in his work, especially when it was for someone else to enjoy. Vince had many passions, but nothing compared to a Florida beach day or a NASCAR race. He loved sledding with his grandkids, fishing and the outdoors, as well as many sports, but he was a particularly big fan of playing corn hole, and watching the Phillies and the Oregon Ducks, the University of Oregon's football team. Vince had eyes and a smile that wouldn't quit, along with a feisty spirit. He was a self-described "Grill Master," with a big appetite for the Joyce family "Wongaburger," gummy bears and Devil Dogs. He will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

A memorial service is planned for Saturday, February 23rd at 11am at Calvary Chapel of Norristown, 601 N. Park Avenue, Trooper, PA 19403. The family will welcome friends and relatives for visitation prior to the service at 10am, or immediately following.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Vince's name to the Penn Medicine Abramson

“ Vince was my first boyfriend I ever had. We met in 7th grade. We were in the same class. I remember Vince fondly every time I drive by the house on Anderson Ave. Vince also took me to my very first high school party when we were in 10th grade. It was on Pothouse Road. I always remember Vince when I drive past that house to this day. So I remember Vince often, and always very fondly. I am so sorry to hear you are gone now Vince, you will be missed. I also fondly remember the rest of the family, and I send my heartfelt condolences for you terrible loss. May the passage of time help heal your pain. To the rest of the family I never met, Vince's wife, son, daughter in law and grandkids I am so sorry for the loss of your husband, father and grandfather. May he now rest in peace and no longer feel illness or pain. In loving memory of Vince. Mel Odell
