

Vincent P. Kelly

August 23, 1941 - April 10, 2021

Vincent P. Kelly

Vince departed this life in comfort and grace on April 10th, 2021. He was born in Roxborough to the late Vincent and Rose(Delfonse) Kelly. He is survived by a sister, goddaughter, nephews, nieces, and numerous cousins from both sides of the family. Vince was a true Roxborough home-grown old school guy that loved every minute of living in the area. Vince worked in the computer field for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the majority of his career. In retirement, he loved eating at diners, hanging out at "the benches" with his buddies in Manayunk, sipping his coffee, listening to music and watching the girls go by. Many people also knew him as the guy that was always walking his doggies. His animals were his babies and constant companions throughout his adult life.

Vince was a humble man who lived a simple life. He loved operas, Frank Sinatra, Louie Prima, and Andrea Boccelli. He also enjoyed giving and receiving nicknames. Some of his favorite nicknames were Vince the Prince, Vinster, Vinman, Vincenzo, Bucko... he answered to all of them. He was a gentle soul who gave a helping hand to many people throughout his life, He was a devout Catholic who served Holy Family Church as a volunteer and was a spiritual soldier for the Holy Souls Organization. Vince's spirit of loving kindness toward humankind, animals, and nature will live on.

Vince always walked to the beat of his own drum, which is what made him so charming and unique. We bid you adieu, Vince the Prince, and pray you rest in peace for all eternity.

Relatives and friends will be invited to gather to celebrate his life in early June. Vince's charity of choice for donations is the Pennsylvania SPCA.

“ Dear Vince, I remember when you and I drove to New York to visit a Blessed Mother's shrine. It was very nice. There were so many people there. You also gave me a rosary. I sent you a rosary and prayer books at the rehab, but then you went to Heaven. You were a dear friend and nephew to my Uncle Tony. Both of you always visited my mom and family for birthdays and Christmas. We miss you. Marianne Gallo.

“ To our cousin Vince. Thanks for all the great memories and laughter. You were always a special part of our family and have many fond memories. Especially taking trips with you in your jeep and spending time with your beloved dog Rocky. I hope you and my dad are enjoying a cold beer together in heaven right now and I'm sure you were welcome with open arms. Rest in peace. Love, Anna Marie Dalesandro-Beech and family!

“ It was great to know you, Vincent. You were a good friend to our Uncle Tony. We always enjoyed the times 'you guys' would come for Christmas and Easter dinners, and even share in our mom's birthday celebrations. We will miss you, but because the promises of Christ are true and real we will meet again in heaven one day and be in the presence of the Lord for all eternity. What joy awaits us! Love, Your Cousins from the other side of our family, Margaret and Marianne Gallo

“ We had the pleasure of knowing Vince as our neighbor. He was indeed one of a kind. He had a sharp wit and wicked sense of humor at times. He always had a smile and pat on the head for our pups. He will be truly missed. I am thankful that Danuta kept us updated on him when he moved away, she was definitely a bright spot in his life, we extend our heartfelt sympathy to Danuta and the rest of Vince's family. I'm sure the Angels welcomed him to Paradise with open arms.

“ What a lovely tribute to Vincent. While I only met the Vinman a few times and was, indeed, impressed with his uniqueness, it is my friend Danuta Taraborrelli who was so kind to him and helped him to live out his life with dignity. For that kind of love and care we should all be grateful. RIP Vince.
